Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 642

Nathaniel had a polite smile as he bent down, knowing that the man in the car had an air of arrogance around him. Henry looked at Nathaniel and blew out a puff of smoke directly at his face.

Nathaniel was caught off guard and began to cough repeatedly from the smoke. Then he heard. a light voice. "Are you alone?"

Turning his head, he coughed again before looking back at Henry, "Yes, I'm alone, but it seems my presence isn't welcome. In that case, it must mean that you're uninterested in what I have. Seeing as I'm disturbing you, I'll leave."

With that said, Nathaniel turned and left.

"Hold up!" Henry snarled. At first, he thought Nathaniel was just playing tricks, but when he saw that Nathaniel got right into the car and started it, Henry panicked. He quickly unbuckled. his seat belt and jumped out of his car.

rushed over and grabbed the half–open window, Nathaniel was car let out a screech as Nathaniel braked to a stop. This almost sent Henry flying to the ground. Once he stabilized himself, who sat in the car, sneered. "Is there anything I can help a deal with me, stop being so pretentious and come down to chat!" Henry gruntled after heard this. "I'm not being pretentious, but if you're not keen, there's nothing to talk about. After all, I'm not the one. needing any concrete evidence, and I'm not the one that's a family this, Henry's gaze turned cold as he stared at Nathaniel. "Are pretentious? You're thinking too highly of me. I wouldn't dare to be gloomy in the face of Nathaniel's words. He took two steps back, sighed, and got out of the car. Only after standing in front of Henry did Nathaniel realize that Henry was not much taller than himself. However, Henry's sinister

"Stop!"