

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 644

Henry snorted at Nathaniel and turned to leave. He knew this was just a waste of time.

Nathaniel said from behind, "Mr. Lodge, do you think this is a fake and inferior product. anyone can imitate? I can guarantee that even Lily can't differentiate this from her own candle."

Henry stopped and looked back at Nathaniel. His eyes were full of suspicion.

Nathaniel knew Henry would not simply believe his words. He stepped forward, stood two steps away from Henry, and handed him the box, "Lily and I had dated for over five years. I'm familiar with her methods and habits.

"Someone I handpicked created this product with much care according to Lily's methods, habits, and recipe. I can guarantee it will be flawless even if the forensics department checks it with the most advanced equipment."

you

but began to believe Nathaniel when he saw his confidence, still two days left, correct? You can look for someone to test it. Oh, right, be careful for the box. He brought

A small amount is insufficient to poison people.

had deliberately smelled Lily's candle and intuitively felt it smelled the same. Even though he did not notice the difference, he would still send it for testing. After candle Lily ever made. I have prepared sufficient quantities for you. Oh, apart from the candles, there's this." He removed a small thing to have a look, "A flash it's useless against Justin. This will be of help know after you return home and have a look at it. I'm looking forward to our future