

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 645

“Which is where exactly?” Lily was surprised when the car stopped at an abandoned amusement park. ‘Did he bring me here for fun and leisure?’

However, she was not in the mood for this at the moment. “Let’s watch a play.” Alexander mysteriously told her these words and took her hand to lead her toward a giant Ferris wheel.

Lily was dumbfounded.

Edward also got out of the car but did not follow them. Instead, he went in a different direction.

Lily was puzzled as Alexander led her toward a higher viewing platform.

scaffoldings and other incomplete structures. Although most of the facilities here were half–built, the quality was still decent. At the least, wondered what Alexander’s plan was. He brought her here during such hours and even said they were here to watch a play. She stood on the viewing platform and realized how far away. In addition, only a few obstructions were in her line of animal. Alexander said they were here to watch a play, but what play was there platform bench and asked her to sit too, “It should start in a moment. It looks like we arrived early, but that’s okay. We can enjoy the scenery and a lunch box from it. Then he opened them and revealed the fragrant coffee in the thermos and a red these?’ She knew he had carried the bag when is just right.” Alexander picked up a cup and poured her some