

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 648

The call connected quickly as if Nathaniel had been expecting it. “Mr. Lodge, how are they? Are you satisfied with the gifts I gave you?”

“Of course, I’m satisfied. Haha!” Henry laughed, “However, I’m curious, how did you get these things?”

“We’re in a modern society where everyone is a businessman with no secrets. Just be attentive, investigate, and observe more. It’s easy. You returned far too hastily. If you came prepared, it’s not hard to find.”

While bolstering Henry’s confidence, Nathaniel deftly avoided discussing where he found the information.

Henry, his face beaming, was struck by these words. “Great! Let’s be friends. Wait till I take them down. In the future, your problem will be my problem.”

Nathaniel let out a soft chuckle, anticipating the arrogant response. “Then I’ll wait for your good news.”

given this information to besides me?” Suddenly, Henry recalled you, even me. As for what to do, it’s up to you. After

After hanging up, Nathaniel looked at the computer screen as better place to ask Justin about this knowledge than in front of the family elders and company’s shareholders. Nevertheless, he felt it was not enough to win back the shareholders’ confidence and save his job if he could convince them he was unaware of the situation, deal with the problem head-on,

way was were likely long-serving employees of the company. If he remembered correctly, they had joined Wilfred when they were young. Having them used this information to blackmail them, he would effectively be able to recruit them to his cause. Henry could fire Justin and win over the veteran employees if they were prepared to stand by him.

your Uncle Henry. All of this should be was not idle either. She devoted herself to doing her work at the La Beauté Group’s branch laboratory and only on the large sofa outside the laboratory, coffee table. Besides Edward, who accompanied him, everyone stayed outside the room. Although they were curious, no one dared