

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 649

“What’s wrong?” Although Alexander looked calm, his expression showed relief after seeing that Lily was safe and sound. “Are you all right?”

Lily shook her head, “I accidentally spilled something.”

“It doesn’t matter as long as you are fine.” Alexander glanced at the spilled liquid and said to the person waiting for orders at the door, “Call someone to clean up, and be careful.”

After a pause, he looked at Lily again. “Is there anything you need to take away before they clean this up?”

“Here.” Lily held two small bottles in her hands, which seemed ready.

“Can we go then?”

Lily nodded. She was already tired. After all, they had suffered all day, and experimenting for a long time was exhausting.

neither inspected nor wanted them to report their

it, we don’t have to go back to the Lodge family residence today,” Alexander said when he

to leave Sapphire, but as long still stayed in Sapphire and at the Lodge family residence, not head. She rested her head on Alexander’s shoulder and felt extremely at ease incredible “evidence,” won’t he be time. Just as she was about to put it down dazedly, she remembered something and picked it up again to news of her grandfather’s death was everywhere, pages.

most interesting part was the focus of the news was not simply on the death but on why the news of the death came out after Wilfred had passed away for several days. It was reported. that someone who was not a Lodge family member had hidden in it? A busybody would down, Lily browsed the web. She guessed someone