

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 654

Arianna smiled and let go of her father's arm. She picked up the glass on the table and took a sip.

"Ah, that felt nice. By the way, dad, I've thought about the new project. It's not impossible to let Damian go. I'll find a way to talk to a few people and convince them to let him go. However, the person in charge earlier..."

Before she could finish speaking, Joseph said impatiently, "I know. He's called Nathaniel, right? I've been busy these days and haven't had time to ask you.

Why did you invite him there? Do you know that he has a bad reputation? His previous company even went bankrupt."

"I know. I wanted to understand the situation better, so I called him over. Ups and downs in the business field are inevitable, not to mention that he's experienced and capable. He's very familiar with the area. Well, let him be the deputy and help Damian a little bit. After all, I can't be by Damian's side all the time. What do you think?"

She thought about it and made arrangements.

that the arrangement was good. He had complete confidence in his son's. He planned to prepare Damian to take over the company, so he decided to teach him the ropes early on. After all, Damian lacked practical business expertise, so it was best to have a seasoned

If only...

to pay more attention to your brother and not depend on an outsider. You should have your

"Okay."

go to my room to the stairs when she heard a noise below. She watched as Damian left the room and dashed into the living was smiling while talking

I knew

as soon as you helped, she had no choice but

Joseph say, "Okay. Now that you mean to trouble you, but