

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 657

It was 9 am at the Lodge family's residence main hall.

It was a serious meeting.

The elders from the branch families sat on either side of a conference table, with Jonathan at the chairman's seat.

Jonathan occasionally coughed while holding onto the wooden box that kept the most important thing in the family, the family seal.

Lily had intentionally dressed in black, with a severe and gloomy expression.

Jonathan looked at her and was still angry about what had happened yesterday.

However, he was feeling slightly better as Alexander was not present today.

easy to deal with at all! I should find a chance and banish Lily from restless since most of the family members

Jonathan, "We've been waiting here for more than time now," Jonathan calmly replied as he blinked everyone else in the room continued meant by 'any time now' so other

the end of the table. She sipped her tea slowly while waiting for the two past three days were sufficient for her to prepare for her counterattack as they prepared fake evidence to accuse minutes, the hall, and some were starting to feel hot as the sun's rays glared walked into the room. He contrasted Lily, dressed in white, with on his

Uncle Jonathan," he raised his voice, "To all the other family members present, I'm sorry that I've