

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 665

Jonathan was unwilling to take responsibility, so he guided Lily toward bringing Justin down in his absence.

Since this was brought up, they stated that Lily and Justin were the only ones that touched Why was Justin not there yet? With a frown, Lily sneered, "Granduncle Jonathan, who's the accomplice you're talking about? Could it be that you have someone in mind already?"

"You..."

"Sorry for being late."

A familiar voice sounded.

Lily's expression finally relaxed as she looked over and saw Justin walking into the hall. He was accompanied by both his personal assistant and a director of the company.

Lily knew who they were.

Jonathan frowned upon seeing the two people walking side by side with Justin.

are you late, and why did you bring outsiders with

"Outsiders?"

laughed, glancing at both sides before averting his eyes back to Jonathan, then to most unpredictable beings in this world. It's hard to tell who's really hidden meaning,

do you mean by you understand what I mean? It's all right. Just sit back and watch the show. You'll understand it soon him to move to the side before he turned to family elders, I'd like to apologize for being late. There were some urgent matters

I'm the one in control of the

out the family

had already passed his family as he said, "Oh, right. If you had not mentioned it, I might have forgotten. Granduncle, I passed the seal to you for temporary safekeeping a few days ago. Thank you so much for helping me, and it's time I take his arm

he had not expected Justin to say such a thing or even