

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 666

'Justin!"

Henry roared.

"It doesn't mean you can disrespect your elders this way just because you've held on to the family seal for two years! We're still uncertain about who the head of the family is before we know the truth behind your grandpa's death!"

Justin nodded.

"Yeah, you're right! We should know the truth about Grandpa's death, so..."

He nodded to his assistant, who picked up the phone, hunched over, and began talking.

Vaguely, they could hear him say, "Okay. Got it."

Then he reported to Justin.

"They're about three minutes away."

doing?"

today, so it should be settled within the family. We have the forensic report now, but if you are still going to

"You're wrong!"

loudly. He had his hands placed behind his back, looking matter of the Lodge family! Since we're unclear about the true reason behind Grandpa's death, this is an unsolved crime! It's a human life that was taken away, and I've decided to look past any personal grudges and choose

soon as he finished his sentence, a sharp siren sounded

Jonathan's facial expressions

"You called the police?"

Let's have the police investigate this case. If Grandpa was poisoned, what poison was used, and how was he poisoned? Who is the murderer? We'll

he met gazes and

cops was a decision that was made after Lily and Justin powerful and had to be mindful of their image and influence in society, all of that was had gone wrong as entire family and ruin our reputation! The Lodge family is for making false accusations just because Grandpa's cause of death is unclear? Did you mention the Lodge family's reputation earlier? With all the chaos you guys have created, what reputation