

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 667

The development was obviously beyond Nathaniel and Arianna's expectations.

Once the secrets of the rich and powerful families were out, the impact on their reputation was immeasurable.

Regardless, this matter would be covered up and hidden so that it would never be known to outsiders.

However, it had already spread throughout Sapphire and Brown City.

At this point, the entire country was aware of this.

The media were the most adept at excavating and expanding their imagination on such things.

Not only was the Lodge family under a lot of chaos right now, but they were also busy giving their statements at the police station while they waited for Wilfred's cause of death from the forensics team.

The Lodge family was in a mess, and their company was in turmoil when the news broke out.

several high-level executives but had yet to panic- stricken as the slowly sipped on her red wine, a faint smile on higher the chances she had to take advantage of things, and the more likely she could come out on

she had to do was resolve

The office

look up to know who it

TV and put

had woken up on the wrong

here and watch TV as you sip on wine?! Do you know if he was already

was not

at him with

they do that made words mean nothing to them? Don't they know I'm the general manager of this project? Do they know I am the branch manager?! Why do they keep listening to that Damian was indignant.