

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 668

It had not been easy for Damian, growing up as an illegitimate child for so many years.

His mother taught him to enter the Tanner family and inherit their properties.

Although he had gathered much theoretical knowledge in business, he never had the chance to practice it.

Now that he was in charge of a new project, he was eager to make achievements.

Of course, Arianna read him like a book and did not object.

"I think you're right, but Mr. Hall also has his points. He has experience in this field. Maybe there are things he sees that we can't."

Faced with her words, Damian became even more furious.

"What can he see that we can't?! I think he's just deliberately trying to go against me. I think he's unhappy that I am the manager!"

the table and continued, "Ari! I don't understand why you value him he was someone no one could get along with. How did he insinuated that Nathaniel

this, Arianna straightened up, and her past, but it is all in the past. No one is a saint, and everyone has their faults. We can't deny he is experienced and

"B-But!"

and ask him what he thinks. I'll persuade him to listen to your side of the

on his shoulder, giving it "Really?!"

delight and shot up when he heard a family. Who else will I help if it isn't you?" Arianna said smilingly, "Take it easy. Just do what you the world's top

Arianna nodded.

with your plans. However, Damian, I must remind you. Our company's budget... isn't

We don't