

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 670

"Nothing's confirmed yet. Don't be so discouraged."

Nathaniel shook his head and flicked his cigarette.

"Don't forget, Henry didn't come back alone."

"Are you talking about the group of so-called ancient kickboxers that he brought back?"

Arianna raised her eyebrows disapprovingly, "I'm not trying to rain on your parade, but the so-called old kickboxer family is overstated. For years, no one has seen them in action, nor has anyone seen how powerful they are. I'm not trying to pry, but you've been with Lily for many years. Is she that powerful?"

Nathaniel did not answer.

"See, although they may have been powerful in the past, don't forget what era we're in now. How can their skills be stronger than guns? Even if we don't have our weapons, if they are as powerful as the legend goes, why didn't Henry make a move? Why do they have to wait until the police get involved? From what I see, it's all just a bluff!"

Initially, she did not want to say any of these.
