

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 672

It was clear he put in a lot of effort to solve them. He would have spent less time if it were as easy as he said.

Lily slowly looked out the window and said, "Reporting this matter to the police will definitely affect the Lodge family's reputation."

"There's nothing more important than Grandpa." He said word by word.

This incident would significantly impact the Lodge family if exposed publicly, but both of them had the same consensus on this matter.

Justin was a taciturn person and not very good at words. Lily said a few words and could not continue the conversation further, and silence befell them once again.

The car only took a short time to drive back to the Lodge family residence. The entire house was shrouded in darkness and seemed gloomy after the turmoil of the past few days.

right!" Lily soon noticed something was out usually quiet, and the disciples were scattered all around, but she felt very uncomfortable as soon as she got out of the car. This was her sharp instinct as someone who

if there were enemies hidden in frowned and glanced in a direction casually. He felt the wind blowing and a figure suddenly attacked him from were each attacked from behind by two attackers who acted actions appeared slow. They were able to dodge the assault and launch a the opponent's arm. Justin grabbed his throat forced to bend over. The two of them did not say a word. Justin and Lily looked at each other and knocked of dread that had surrounded them

Clap!" The sound of applause could be house. He returned to the house before them and brought a storm