

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 679

Lily returned to her hotel shortly after.

Too many things had happened in the Lodge family residence over the past three days. She felt traces of her childhood and Wilfred's shadow everywhere when she stayed with the Lodge family residence and could not help but feel upset.

She used to think there was an estrangement between herself and Wilfred, that their relationship was not that strong. However, now that her grandfather had passed away, she realized she was missing him.

Lily's parents passed away when she was a child, so she grew up with her grandfather. She resented Wilfred because she thought he was always too strict. She only realized when she grew up that her grandfather did whatever was necessary for her good.

Lily would have injured herself numerous times without his care. However, her grandfather would never return now. She wanted to avenge her grandfather, but after all her efforts, she only got the result of "natural death." She did not even have the chance to avenge Wilfred.

After taking a shower, Alexander saw Lily sitting in a her legs. Her chin was resting on her knees, and her upset seeing his wife in this state. He had never seen Lily so absent-minded since they met. She had never felt so helpless, even when she had trouble with Nathaniel or the bed, put one hand over Lily's shoulder, pulled her into his arms, and let her lean on his result might be a good ending everyone had been investigating this case for so long, and the clues pointing toward the murderer had never stopped, back, Henry probably just wanted to use Wilfred's death to set off a storm and seize power, but it was not him who poisoned Wilfred. So, from another point of view, there was a difference between understanding and sadness. Human emotions were more challenging to bruise on your arm. What happened?" Alexander pulled her arm over as