

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 684

"Mom, try not to lose your cool. That woman's moment of triumph is fleeting at best. She's not deserving of the title of Mrs. Tanner," Arianna said, her gaze growing intense. Eloise was startled.

"Arianna, what are you going to do? Don't touch her. You know how your father is."

Using her own resources, Eloise could have dealt with that woman, but if she touched her, Joseph would find out. She was so kind in front of him for many years, but all her patience was in vain. She did not want to risk losing everything just because of a small matter. Just like Arianna said, she should bear with the anger for a while. The final victory was to have dominance over the Tanner family. The winner of the battle was still unknown.

"Mom, don't worry. Of course, I won't do anything. However, only fate can decide what happens." Arianna smiled lightly, took a sip of wine, and then seemed to remember something.

Mom, is Uncle Derrick not feeling well recently? You and Aunt Stephanie are relatively Eloise said, "I've been there twice, but Aunt Stephanie kept saying that Uncle Derrick heard Dad say that Uncle Derrick doesn't have much hide it if it was not at least somewhat accurate? "What?!" Eloise was taken aback, "No way! If that's the case, the Tanner family and company's affairs must be arranged to make arrangements yet?" Arianna said meaningfully, Mom, is Benedict not back yet? I heard that he which was why Uncle Derrick became seriously ill. It seemed that he was going south of the reason that triggered Uncle Derrick's health. Since