

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 687

The forensic department's autopsy report was final, and there was no more dispute about Wilfred's death. Soon after, the Lodge family finally buried Wilfred's body.

After settling his funeral, Lily wanted to discuss the issue about Henry with Justin, but she was astounded when her name once again became a hot topic on the internet. This time it was not good.

The post consisted of her voice recording. The recording only contained a short part of what she had said in the Lodge family meeting, explaining that she could easily mix poisonous content into her perfumes.

The recording created waves of commotion on the internet. Lily's name was among the most searched on Twitter, which slowed their servers down for a moment. This issue stirred up a considerable ruckus everywhere because it was too controversial.

Lily's products if she could add dangerous substances to her fragrances? No one in their right mind would still want to quickly got out of hand, and Alexander wanted to get his PR team suppress the news now, it will already gotten out of hand, let's just leave it. Besides, if they're willing to spend money to ensure I'm top of the list on Twitter,

Lily was taking this and looked at

and La Beaute Group's reputation, and I'm truly sorry about that. I promise this and said softly, "Stop being silly. There's no need for apologies. Remember that we're a team. Anyway, do you think I'm scared