

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 691

La Beaute Group's public relations team moved fast. In just two days, they had appeased most of the consumers and remedied the negative impacts on the company. However, Lily would need to attend the press conference in person.

Nathaniel was sitting in his office, looking at the data while his fingers tapped gently on the tabletop. Although he was displeased, he had to admit that La Beaute Group was highly efficient. The response speed and method used in handling crises were much better than that of MN Inc.

Abig company would have a professional team to handle such matters. If it were in the past, Nathaniel would not be able to tell how much time his company would need to remedy such negative impacts.

Now, he was observing the development of the matter for learning purposes. After all, he would need to manage a massive company, perhaps comparable to La Beaute Group, after Tanner Corporation fell under his control. The only way he could defeat his enemy was by studying them well.

As for Lily, he had not seen her in the past few days. He wondered if she was afraid or broken down to nothing after seeing all the criticisms from the public. Everyone was looking at her as if she was a murderer now, after all.

know what went down within the Lodge family, but they heard Lily's words in the perfumes on the market were safe for use and doubts about the products, which calmed most consumers down. However, humans were meat if that Russell guy had not protected lacked a good background and an case this time around, for example. Alexander did not have to do anything alone because the professionals in his company would settle everything. As their case in Tanner Corporation now. Although the people who work here are Arianna and me, those from the working classes, or even that good-for-nothing Damian, the management and ownership of the company still belong to Derrick, who knows nothing! This is the Bang!

his guest was without having to look up. In the entire company, only one person would open the door