

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 699

At half past six, the seats in the ballroom of a five-star hotel in Brown City were almost full.

Other than media reporters, there were also renowned perfumers and newcomers from the perfumery industry.

Anyone who had any relations to the perfumery world gathered here.

After all, this incident caused an uproar and shook the entire perfume industry.

Everyone wanted to come and see how Lily would explain herself.

Everyone wanted to know if she would apologize for her wrongdoings or deny what she said in the recording.

Alexander's car did not drive to the main entrance.

Instead, he arranged to enter through the back.

Then a bodyguard escorted him through the VIP passage to the lounge. His secretary had arrived earlier to organize everything.

Once she heard Alexander coming, she quickly rushed over with a stack of papers.
