

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 707

Immediately, the place was filled with voices of people comparing the two words. After careful consideration and trying with different tones, they did hear it with different meanings.

Even the employees of La Beaute Group were curiously repeating the word silently. Only Lily remained calm, standing there quietly. Even if she did not attend all dressed up, she was still so beautiful that people could not take their eyes off her.

"Even so, what do you mean by poison? If it's not poison, could it be a tonic?"

Lily expected she would face doubts, and laughed. "It's not a tonic, but it's almost similar. After all, tonic is good for your body. What I added also has this effect."

"Don't keep us guessing. You still admit that you added something to the perfume. Did you put in other additives during the blending process? What exactly did you add?"

put on a serious

why I added other things." She lowered for a while. They all took the initiative to quiet down, waiting

Lily finally stopped and looked been in good health. However, he unexpectedly suffered from insomnia in his later years. He didn't sleep well and had difficulty falling are the two important things. Their health will be affected if do to help my grandfather. Hence, I tried adding ingredients to for scented candles to aid with sleep. Some scented candles with special oils, such as lavender, will make people feel at ease. However, it was not very helpful for patients who suffer from severe insomnia like my grandfather. Therefore, I tried to add some ingredients subtly persuade listeners. Everyone felt that what