

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 708

She said it half-jokingly. There was a roar of laughter, and the atmosphere became much more relaxed. Even the other staff of La Beaute Group laughed along since the situation was suddenly reversed.

Not only was the crisis gradually lifted, but it was also even better than they thought. If they had gone with the initial solution, the only two methods to solve the emergency were to deny the authenticity of the recording or admit that Lily was talking nonsense.

After all, with the accessibility of the internet, it was very easy for someone to analyze and decipher the audio just to prove what Lily said. It would add fuel to the situation.

La Beaute Group could not be too overpowering, either. Things had already set off a storm. Trying to suppress it would only make people feel that the internet rumors were true.

never denying anything, and provided a clear explanation. Since she had admitted it and revealed everything, including what she added in, it would be it feasible? Have you really succeeded?" The one who asked the question was the perfumer who first he had tried and failed many soothe the nerves. It process be so easy? The

it was one thing to think about it and another thing to implement it and amber glass bottles that were kept in good condition, "These two bottles were made after I returned to Brown City.

calming ingredients added inside, while the other has refreshing ingredients. They're both completely different. If you have any doubts, you can give stepped forward. While standing there, he looked