

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 719

"No way!"

Holding her arm, Arianna pressed her face against Eloise's.

"I'm real! If you don't believe me, pinch my face to see if it's really me!"

This made Eloise laugh as she pinched Arianna's cheek.

Then, Eloise joked, "Oh, it really is you. I thought you were a fake."

Then, the mother and daughter broke into laughter as if all doubts had been put aside.

After a moment of laughter, Eloise turned serious and said, "I didn't mean anything else. I just feel like you've grown up so much. You're no longer a kid that listens obediently. You're starting to have your own ideas and can even advise me. You've grown up!"

Eloise studied her daughter's face and sighed. Her daughter was an adult now, and she was also getting old. Her beauty was fading, and no matter how reluctant she was, many things were out of her control.

"I'm 26! Of course, I've grown up!"

Arianna answered with a pout.

"That's right. You're already 26!"

Then, Eloise sighed again.

"I've neglected my role as immediately let go of Eloise's arm and grumbled, "I told you I have a boyfriend. I don't need an

"Nonsense!"

did not believe her boyfriend? What sort of

"That's not the case..."

knew what she should

being a

Tanner family would belong to her at the end

it didn't matter if she was a princess or

She knew she had to do everything she could to fight for a romantic movie type of love, she knew keen on falling in love, nor did she envy those who were in romantic relationships. She was occupied with looking for the end, she decided family background, wealth, or power, he was indeed the

that, he was only met her requirements perfectly, but he was also more than what she could ask