

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 735

"What about the budget?" Joseph frowned.

"Didn't we allocate a considerable amount for you?"

"You did, but hiring the perfumer cost a lot of money. As you also know, the top perfumers are expensive, so the budget has gotten a bit...tight for other areas."

Joseph flipped to the expenditure report, furrowed his brows, and stared at the numbers, upset.

"Didn't I tell you not to overspend, even though the budget is considerable? Why have you overspent by so much? What kind of top perfumer have you hired? The fee was ridiculously high! Were you ripped off or what?" He poked the numbers on the report with dismay.

"N-No!"

Damian waved and hurriedly explained, "I approached the top international perfumer through a connection. We've put out the promotion. Google it, and you'll know how famous the perfumer is!"

he bent over and keyed in awards and is a noted authority on perfumery. We can check these things online. Besides, I've already tried the perfume he was he did not know much about a great idea

Damian quickly responded.

a thought but could not tell what was had already spent so much money, they could only move run short of money, I'll ask the financial department to spending, the money must be well-spent. As long as it over the ten

was ten million dollars that and claimed it was a gift for Eloise, winning would be a ridiculous waste of his mother going to