

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 745

Lily was worried.

Although it was hard to be sure with matters like these, she knew what had happened. She and Alexander had s*x twice without safety, presumably during her safe period.

Thinking back, Lily felt a chill down her spine.

As Lily drove, she looked up and saw the hospital gate. She had driven over here in a daze.

However, having reached here, she hesitated to go in for a checkup.

As Lily lingered, the cars behind her honked, and she could only drive into the compound.

Unable to find a parking space, Lily hesitated again and drove out after making another round.

She found a pharmacy nearby and went in but dared not ask for a pregnancy test kit.

The pharmacy assistant had grown accustomed to these situations, so they asked if Lily needed family planning supplies.

Only then did Lily hesitantly ask for a pregnancy test.
