

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 755

Since production at the studio had only just begun, there was little to do.

Lily spent a few days deliberating over the series theme, and that was just for Lisa's order.

She could only begin developing the fragrance once she settled on a theme and basic concept.

In the early afternoon, Lily suggested that Olivia go home and rest while she stayed around to tie up some loose ends and outline the preliminary concept for Lisa's order.

She sat for nearly an hour trying to think of solutions, but all she could think about was whether she should give up the child or her job.

In the meantime, she could not stop twiddling the piece of wood Benedict had given her because of how it smelled.

Interestingly, its scent was not strong but had steadily lingered for a long time.

"Your business hasn't even started officially. Do you have to work so hard?"

Having the key to the studio, Alexander went straight in and saw her zoning out.

Lily was surprised.

are you here? Got off

come to offer my labor, but it looks like there's said, "Everything looks great. Your equipment should but I asked her to leave early haven't

the piece of

"What's this?"

gave that to me, and I haven't had the time from him in a while. He told me he was going to look for some wood, but he had gone missing and regarded

of me. Aren't you worried

a child,

what I know, he's already 20 years old and can't be more than tapped the tip of

talked like

"Really?"

bit surprised that he was not a teenager

me, he's just to Alexander as he twiddled the wood between his fingers, but she

"What's up?"