

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 756

Lily stared up at him, unable to respond.

"Frankly speaking, I'm not patient, and children are troublesome. However, I'd be looking forward to them if they were our own."

He held her hand and asked, "Why? Do you want a child now?"

Gazing into his eyes, Lily wanted to let out a sigh.

Whether she wanted the child or not, it was already here.

Having her hands held between his, they felt warm, and she gradually relaxed.

After all, he was the one who had made her feel safe for over a year.

He had a right to know, just as Jenny had emphasized earlier. She gulped and mustered her courage.

"I have something to tell you."

"Yes?"

"I might be..."

paused and chose her

be...I

said it out loud, she felt a sudden relief. She looked nervously was neither shocked nor

he was listening to stories that

and that

"Okay?"

to face him with a shocked

you're

she figured he would either be overjoyed or battling with the same questions she had. She had not expected him to be her bewildered look, Alexander smiled and to tell you something, but don't be

"About what?"

"I already knew."

was so shocked that you knew? Are you trying to say that you disbelief when he

you find out and how? I only thought