

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 775

Alexander first took Lily to pick a diamond ring, which he had pre-arranged because a sales advisor brought them to the VIP room as soon as they arrived.

Then two more sales advisors brought two trays into the room, each with dozens of diamond rings.

"Mr. and Mrs. Russell, you may choose a ring from here."

The numerous diamond rings blinded Lily as she glanced at Alexander sideways.

Under the bright lights, those stones shone brightly, and each of them was dazzling.

"You can choose. I told the salespeople to reserve the latest and most unique ones, but I didn't decide on the ring for you."

Lily's gaze swept across the rings.

Most had similar designs, except for minor differences in the diamonds' sizes.

"Mrs. Russell, you have slender fingers and fair skin. This pink diamond ring would look good on you."

One of the sales advisors squatted before the couple and recommended, "This pink diamond ring is the latest collection this year, and its craftsmanship is exceptional. The clarity of the diamond is high as well. You can see here."
