

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 779

After a while, Lily moved and put her hand on his, holding it to give him some warmth.

Alexander turned to look at her, shaking his head as he told her that he was fine.

"I know you're fine. I just felt like holding your hand,"

Lily chuckled. He held her hand too, feeling his frustration subdued by a whole lot.

His head was leaned against the headrest, and he stayed silent for a moment before starting, "Don't worry. I won't let them hurt you."

"Them?" Lily thought for a while and realized who he was referring to.

Nodding her head, she said, "I trust you."

She understood little about the Russell family.

To be more specific, outsiders and the media were unable to report on the Russell family's issues in detail. Something seemed to be shrouding the big family, and outsiders had no way to see what was happening on the inside. What Lily knew was that Alexander was the fourth child among his siblings, which was why Brandon called him "Fourth Russell."

the fourth child, he was the only one left because all his elder brothers had died. She was unclear about their exact cause of death, but Alexander gotten stronger after his family hired

he inherited the family's business little about his family, she could tell that they were not a harmonious family, judging from how he treated was in charge of the Lodge family, their family was fairly harmonious, but there was still someone like Henry in the family, not to mention other wealthy families such as the Russell of interest were inevitable in wealthy families once would engage in all manner of competition and dirty a person's heart was both the simplest and was getting engaged soon. Would

should be talking

"yeah!"

Lily nodded repeatedly.

the name

not heard that he had any other siblings, so who was Ralph? "He is the youngest uncle of the bridge of

reminded of such a person

pregnant with him at an older