

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 783

It was nightfall at the largest nightclub in the city.

Ryo Nightclub had the fanciest private rooms, was the most well-equipped, and had the best service. It was also the highest-priced club around.

However, money was nothing to Damian right now. He booked a large private room and invited his so-called confidantes.

The table was full of various types of alcohol, as if he did not want anyone to go home sober.

"I invited everyone to this party tonight to relax and to cheer everyone up. We have a bright future ahead, and I hope we will continue working together until the end. In the future, our products will go viral and sell out!"

Damian raised his glass for a toast and proudly said, "Everyone has worked hard. Let me give you all a toast!"

"Thank you, Mr. Tanner!"

Everyone cheered in unison as they raised their heads and drank together.

said, "Hey, why are we still

everyone

inside, he had to soon to say that. It's not confirmed

what I person chimed in, "Mr. Tanner managed to get such a wonderful result just after taking over one project. No one in the company can do such a thing. Besides, you're

but said

there were always people who were a little ignorant and questioned in a low

"Hey!"

the person who asked the question to stop company for a long time. If Mr. Joseph did not step in and help, the company would have been in trouble. Besides, Mr. Benedict isn't a businessman. How to take a shot because of what you said. We will all rely on the young Mr. Tanner to support us in the uproar, Damian was satisfied. He patted his chest and said, "As long as all of you work hard to serve the company, everyone was in high spirits, and the atmosphere time, Damian's assistant went out to he leaned into Damian's ear and said, "Mr. Tanner, Ms. Schiffer isn't