

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 796

Lily brought some fruits and a thermos of hot porridge to the hospital for Olivia's visit.

After she had resigned and worked with Lily at the studio, Olivia had not been eating properly.

When Lily got the call informing her that Olivia was in the hospital, she was shocked.

Lily was relieved to learn from Edward that it was only a minor stomach ulcer, and she quickly brought some porridge and fruit over early in the morning.

"Where is the person who'd always make me eat? You're something else. How could you forget to eat?!"

Lily kept muttering as she poured the porridge into a small bowl.

"Your stomach is very sensitive now, and you should only eat food that is easy to digest. Now, no matter how much you crave them, you can't eat all that delicious food you like anymore."

Then she sat on the edge of the bed and blew on the spoon as she glanced at Olivia, who was still laughing.

Lily genuinely did not know what to do with this woman.
