

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 798

"Lily, what's going on?"

Olivia tilted her head and asked. She observed Lily getting up to close the door, but she didn't return for quite some time, and then, it was only partially closed.

"Shush!" Lily gestured.

"I'm watching a show."

Olivia was speechless! Wasn't Lily the one who said not to meddle in other people's business? Olivia did not know why Lily was interested until, amidst the yelling, Lily suddenly remembered who that man was.

That man that barged in was Joseph Tanner's illegitimate son, Damian. The fact that Lily had heard of him was also purely coincidental.

Jenny had told her at the time that Nathaniel had taken a job with Tanner Corporation and proposed that they go into the perfume business. He even opened up a new department to develop perfume, with him being the person in charge.

Lily had no idea when he became the project manager of Tanner Corporation or how he became involved with them.

their complicated relationship could lead him to pull some tricks that in mind, Jenny felt that his proposal to start a perfume department at Tanner Corporation was a shot at had never regarded anyone as her rival in making perfumes. She had entered the business purely out of interesting

the perfume project was launched, there was a change the project. It was common knowledge that Joseph was doing this to advance his illegitimate creating opportunities for Damian, and Nathaniel did not find out what happened afterward. He was a victim of found it challenging to were pretty

coupled with the fact that this floor was relatively a skill she had picked up by learning kickboxing. She could hear everything if she concentrated hard the hospital bed with tears and how she did not say a word in the face of Damian's accusation, it gave rash on her face was still there,