

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 805

Elizabeth was displeased by Joseph's words, thinking he was protecting Eloise.

"How is that impossible? You're training Damian to be the successor of the company these days. She could be jealous and hold a grudge against Damian and is plotting something to destroy us! She and that model are both in the same line of work. Don't you forget that!"

The more Elizabeth explained, the more she was convinced by her own assumptions.

Then she pulled Damian into her arms and began to wail again.

"We're so miserable! My son, you're finally going to succeed, but I can't believe someone tried to stop you by doing all these..."

"That's enough. Stop overthinking! Eloise is not that kind of person!"

Joseph rebuked, then continued after taking a breath, "She's concerned about the bigger picture. This isn't just about the jealousy both of you feel but involves the entire Tanner Corporation. What good would she gain out of destroying the company? Do you think she's that dumb?"

Elizabeth was stunned by his yells while Damian slowly tugged at her shirt.

"Mom, I don't think it's Eloise. It should be one of our business competitors. I'm inexperienced, so the company should blame me for the mess this time! I'll take responsibility for the problems I've caused."

Initially, Damian was flustered, but at this point, with all the chaos, he gradually regained his composure. He knew he should give in and show that he could be accountable.

No matter how much he agreed with his mother's words, it was evident Joseph did not believe in them, so he found it pointless to argue further about that.
