

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 810

Stephanie was furious and pointed toward the hospital ward.

"Your uncle is still under emergency procedures, and we're unsure what will happen to him next, yet you're already rushing to seize control of the company? Ari, you're not our daughter, but we've watched you grow up. Don't you have the slightest bit of respect for your uncle? You can wait to do this later, can't you?"

"The company's the one that can't wait any longer, not me."

Sighing, Arianna put the papers back into the folder.

"Aunt Stephanie, you don't work for the company, so you might be unclear about the things going on there. Now that the company is in such a dire situation, I want to get through it as quickly as possible, but...I can't make any decisions when I lack the authority to do so. I can wait, but I may not be the only one to disturb Uncle Derrick then.

"Rather than having that happen, why don't you let me handle this? You and Uncle Derrick watched me grow up, so how could I not look after you two? Don't worry. I'll treat the two of you well even when I take over the company."

After a pause, she continued earnestly, "Now that Benedict is not around, just consider me as your daughter, and I'll take care of the both of you in the future."
