

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 813

At that moment, Eloise came out from the kitchen and said, "Stop talking shop and come have your dinner."

After a hectic day, Joseph was both tired and hungry. He got up and went to sit at the dining table.

As his wife sat beside him, however, he somehow thought about what Elizabeth had said.

Joseph started to eat quietly without saying anything.

After a while, Arianna came over after washing her hand, and the family of three ate in silence. It had been a long time since they had such a peaceful moment together.

Although Joseph did not say it out loud, Elizabeth's words kept bugging him, and he could not stop but throw a few glances at Eloise.

Eloise felt them.

However, since her husband said nothing, she simply feigned ignorance.

Two were halfway eating, Eloise, who always ate little, got ready to leave,
