

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 816

She wanted him to keep guessing.

Taking a towel, Alexander walked over and wiped her sweat off.

"Take a break and have some tea."

"Okay."

Wiping the sweat off her face, she moved to the shaded area under the pergola, where she felt soothed after taking a few sips of tea.

"This weekend..."

It was rare that Alexander would hesitate while talking to her.

"Yes?"

and looked curiously

weekend, I'd like you to distaste, it must be a place that Alexander had to go to despite himself. Lily guessed there could only

Russell family's old

"You knew?"

now that she

too long, but we

youngest uncle is getting

of the way she addressed the

you should brace yourself because this is people might think they were

Lily was curious why he hated the place where he grew up. He once admitted to her that growing up was not easy for him and that there had been conspiracies and backstabbing, but he had never given her the

at the diamond store, she surmised that