

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 818

"Ari, are you sure we can trust this report? Can it be..."

Joseph thought about it and continued, "What I'm trying to say is, is it possible that someone had switched the perfume sample or that only one batch of the perfumes is problematic while others are fine?"

"Think about it. From the factory to the lab, many others could have done something to the perfumes..."

Arianna sighed helplessly, "Dad! I already thought about that. To ensure nothing would go wrong, I brought the perfumes to the lab for testing, but if you don't trust me and think I did something to the perfumes, then I've got nothing to say."

After she said that, Joseph would not admit it even if it were true.

"Ari, why would I suspect you? It's just that I feel... Well, as you know, we're at a critical moment. Who knows, there might be people wanting to set us up. They could have done it in stages."
