

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 820

Arianna did not know what to say to her father.

How could he be so naive at his age? Joseph was still worried about his precious son even after he had made such a mess and asked her to handle it on his behalf.

If she were the one in trouble, her father would never have done so much or gotten so anxious for her sake. To him, a daughter was meant to sacrifice herself for the family.

"Get Mr. Hall to my office."

She pressed the intercom button and said it coldly.

Leaving his company's parking lot, Joseph saw a suspicious car follow him and let out a cold smile.

alley, he walked to one end, made two turns, and hailed a cab to get to he saw his precious son playing with him like this,

your phone at a moment like this? Didn't I tell you not to turn on your phone before I been so busy working hard to save his *ss, and yet he's here playing games!' He became even angrier after seeing what was on Damian's

I don't play games,

Joseph was fuming.

can make me proud, not lose face! Now you against your son? If you don't like him, don't come back and just disown him. Do you have to run him down like this? "Oh, he couldn't do it and disgraced you. Give your precious daughter spatula, Elizabeth rushed out of her kitchen, fiercer than he unique circumstances, they could not afford to let the maid come, and Elizabeth had to cook by herself. She had grown accustomed to an reprimand of her son added to