

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 821

Having been with him for so many years, Elizabeth could easily tell if he was truly angry or was faking it. She calmed down after realizing something was amiss and only pouted as she rose to her feet in anger.

"Mom!"

Damian rushed over to help her and looked at his father.

"Dad, I know it's all my fault, and this is my responsibility. However, someone has set me up on purpose. I don't believe there's a problem with the perfumes. Someone must have done something to cause me trouble."

He suspected that Arianna sabotaged him, but after some careful thought, he believed that only his own people could have tampered with the manufacturing of perfumes.

Even if Naomi Schiffer had no bad intentions, someone could still mess with the perfumes during their delivery to the lab.

However, he was stuck there and could not do anything except make wild guesses.

Joseph snorted.
