

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 827

"Why? That's the truth!"

Narrowing his eyes, Joseph did not think anything was wrong with what he said.

At least, that was what he had felt over the years.

Letting out a snort, Eloise looked at him.

"Oh, you've been great to her? Even though she had worked so hard, you refused to delegate power to her, and Ari has gotten to her position through her own effort! What have you given her? You only care about your son and plan to leave everything to him. Have you spared a thought for Ari's future?"

Hearing this for the first time, Joseph took a second to respond.

"She's going to get married sooner or later! When she gets married, she'll no longer be a member of the Tanner family. How could she inherit the company?"

"I've told you this before, and it's not my fault that she's born a woman. Yes, Ari is capable, and if she were a man, I'd definitely hand the company over to her. However, she's a woman and will get married someday. That's why I told you we should try to have a son, but you..."

Eloise's body had been affected after giving birth to Arianna, and she had been unable to conceive since.

Elizabeth, who later

she knew she was still the lawful wife and was not

But now...

give birth to a son? Just because of this, you've

on

he was disappointed look, he

with Ari to set

"Set you up?"

let out a derisive

call Ari's effort a set-up, then I've nothing to say. Your precious son has run into trouble, made you lose face, and brought a crisis

Joseph was speechless.

hard to think of ways to solve the problem, even to the point of pushing her uncle. But you? All you know is to blame everything on her! Fine, just do so. I'll ask her to stop bothering to help so that we can all

up her

was stunned to see her picking up the phone

"What are you doing?"

you