

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 832

Olivia hurried into the house to get the tools and sent them to Lily. Lily carefully cut off some buds and put them in the tray. There were few pieces of wood, so there were only that many shoots.

However, when Olivia picked up the tray, she smelled a peculiar aroma.

"The scent is so unique!" Olivia could not help but move the tray closer to smell it again.

"It's a good thing, right?" Lily was a little proud. "Be careful, don't break it. We'll start working on it right away."

Lily had been waiting for these little things for the past few days. If her idea were right, she would release a new peculiar perfume.

The Perfumers' Society's office in Brown City had a large courtyard.

Then he looked at the ban order issued in the

was still waiting for Lily's response, which she had yet to

she did not even call him to give up. Personally, Noah did not want to make it a big

Lily had talent, but whether she was unsure, but she should be under the control of the Perfumers' Society. If she was to give in until now. Did she think that Alexander pondering, someone came in from outside. "Mr.

asked because everyone here

person shook their head. "No, she said her surname at the computer next to him, where the trending list was still on the screen. He smiled. "Let did not expect that she would find him here. Arianna wore a fluffy mauve skirt today, which made her look younger, youthful, and makeup, which was different from her usual image in the company. She curled