

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 836

"We suspect you have something to do with a commercial crime. Please come with us!" The officer who asked the question earlier said with a severe expression.

"Commercial crime?" Lily frowned as she did not understand what was happening. "Why? Did the Perfumers' Society accuse me of a commercial crime?"

'If so, that would be funny.'

The officer shook his head. "It's not the Perfumers' Society. The Tanner Corporation accused you of conspiring with their manager, Mr. Damian Tanner, to add prohibited ingredients to their perfumes for personal gain. You must cooperate with us for the investigation."

The officers were polite to her. Typically, the police would not tell their suspects the reason and take them away to the station first.

surprised. "Who? Tanner,

the name well. 'Mr. Tanner? I come with us and cooperate with the investigation." The officer showed his credentials and did not I'll go with you." She also wanted to find out what was even know who Mr. Tanner is. Let alone colluding with him. It's their slander. How

If you interfere again, you will obstruct police duty!" the officer said

"It's okay. I'm just going to find out the situation with them. I'd also like to know how and why the was funny to think about it. Did Lily conspire with Nathaniel, Lily did not know anyone else, so what kind of conspiracy were they talking about? How could they frame her without any okay!" Shaking her head to appease Olivia, Lily turned and as she watched the police car leave. She thought about it and turned around to call Edward, "Edward, something happened! The police have