

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 842

She also had a lot of debit cards, but not all of them were in use. Lily had not used that specific card for a long time, so she did not know how much money was in it and did not receive any notifications. Therefore, even if someone sent money to that account, she would not know.

"You're not aware of such a large sum?" Pointing at the receipt, the officer thought she was lying.

"This may be a lot of money, but I don't pay much attention to it," with a disdainful smile, Lily continued, "Although I haven't earned so much as a perfumer over the past few years, I still earn quite a lot. With my current ability, it is not difficult to earn this amount."

"Of course, it's not difficult. All you need to do is add something to the formula, and it's that easy! Who wouldn't feel tempted?"

but there were still holes everywhere in the story. The officer also questioned Lily as he usually would, and the Tanners prioritized this case. Meanwhile, the public was paying close attention to this case and waiting for its as the current evidence is concerned, it can't prove I had anything to do with Damian. Firstly, I don't know him and haven't had any private meetings with him.
