

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 846

She looked in the mirror to see how charming and seductive she was. Just when the elevator reached his floor, she put away her lipstick and walked straight toward the room.

After ringing the doorbell a few times, the door finally opened.

Noah was standing inside, and his hair was still dripping wet. He was wrapped in a large bathrobe, looking like he had just taken a shower.

The dense heat had not completely dissipated, and his jet-black pupils made him look sexy. Arianna is suddenly a little nervous.

She was very good at planning and had a few ideas in mind, along with the most meticulous planning and preparation, but since she had never done this before, she was still a little anxious.
