

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 847

Noah looked at Arianna and asked, "You ordered wine?"

Then he opened the door and took the red wine in.

"You need to have wine to enjoy this beautiful scenery."

Arianna stood up, took the red wine from Noah, and went to get two glasses.

She opened the wine and poured it as she spoke, "To our strong alliance, cheers!"

Noah held the wine glass and clinked it with Arianna's, but he did not drink.

Instead, he looked at her lightly.

did I agree

Think about all the benefits I can bring

"As far as I know, although you have a good background, you're not one of the most favored family members, am I right? "Also, you've had arguments with your family about perfumery. Do you honestly want to lose her.and be honest, I've been a black sheep in my family for a long time too, so I know how it feels. Still, we're different. No matter how hard I try, they won't were on the red wine in the glass. It looked so beautiful as it sloshed around inside the glass, but in the end, it would still end you're different. You have the opportunity and the ability. How can you be willing to give someone something that originally belonged to you? It's supposed to be yours, so why would you give it to someone herself another drink and unknowingly drank half the bottle. Her speech gradually became a little more illogical did not drink much and was paying full attention to her. He felt that Arianna seemed a little different. He someone to investigate Arianna. He knew an illegitimate son and wanted to hand the family business to was not reconciled and wanted to use Noah's power and background to consolidate her when two wealthy families got entangled in marriage. However, Noah did not like such a