

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 849

"Are you telling me how to do things?"

Noah turned and glanced at Arianna, sounding unhappy.

"No. It's just a reminder."

Arianna smiled, opened the door, and left.

After leaving Noah's place, Arianna's heartbeat became increasingly unstable. She thought everything was under her control, but it all went sideways in just two days. She felt she had weaved a web, with her at its center, watching others trap themselves.

However, she slowly discovered she was on someone else's web instead, ultimately becoming the prey.

'This can't be! Something must've gone wrong!' Lily's luck was in the dumpster for the past few days.

The Tanner Corporation wanted to sue her for colluding with internal staff and tampering with their perfume.

Perfumers' Society seized the opportunity to join in and accused her sides attacking Lily, some of her supportive backs on her, thinking she was simply trying to split

in Lily, saying she was innocent and believed in her character and ability to create extraordinary some thought no one would simply set a scheme to frame her. She never acknowledged the

if she tampered with the various ingredients to perfumes in a past press conference and wondered conflicting sides, but Lily never responded. She seemed busy the past two days and ran in and out of unexpected guest visited the

see that the door was open, so he walked full of plants as various scents were scents of flowers, herbs, and even medicine. It smelled a little weird when the scents