

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 851

Noah did not know it then but would soon realize what Lily meant when she said, "I can wait, and you should too."

Many posts regarding the Perfumers' Society appeared on the internet overnight.

The contents and titles varied but were mainly about the industry's inside stories.

Initially, the trending searches over the past two days were about Tanner Corporation's perfume containing harmful ingredients and Lily getting banned from perfuming.

Since then, posts like "Dark Schemes Within the Industry,"

"Shocking News Concerning Perfumers' Society," and so on have appeared and rushed to the top of the trending list.

Although these posts were different and contained all kinds of revelations, everyone knew the leaders in the Perfumers' Society had feathered their nests and used their power for personal gain.

Since the Perfumers' Society set the threshold, they could do whatever they wanted, or so they thought.

Most netizens suddenly banded together to boycott the Perfumers' Society before its members even discovered where these posts came from.

the Perfumers' Society, saying the society's concept was good at the start but gradually with power as it paved the way openly discussed the threats, the threshold fees for entry, and the unreasonable treatment they had received from and reputation and even forced to follow hidden rules set by their superiors attention and detonating the Perfumers' Society was shocked and quickly they cover up such a trending and controversial topic? Almost all of the Perfumers' too late to delete went crazy, and all the netizens were from a high-ranking organization into a cancerous tumor in the industry that been so busy these two days that he could not care about Lily, but he also knew in his heart that it was very contacted so many people, and how she convinced them to stand posts that broke the news were sincere

it was even more surprised there were so many rotten apples in Perfumers' Society that he did also guessed it might be her, but there is called. He was furious that he coughed from time to time