

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 852

Noah often stayed in hotels, drinking, smoking, and smelling various perfumes and powders. It naturally ruined his sense of smell.

Moreover, he had done many things besides perfumery over the past few years. He realized the Perfumers' Society might have gone off course when he saw those posts on the internet that were solely criticisms and accusations.

Also, they had not made any great perfumes in the past two years, as most were mediocre.

After some thought, he realized he felt moved and genuinely agreed with Lily. He asked himself, "Is this the grand occasion, the outcome I wanted?"

But no matter what, as long as he was still a member of the Perfumers' Society, he must shoulder his responsibilities and not allow anything to tarnish the society's image. He calmed down and sat in front of the computer.

After opening Twitter, he thought about it and drafted a statement.

The statement mainly emphasized that someone had intended to frame the Perfumers' Society.

would take legal action to protect themselves and to sue the relevant people and posts related to the

and correcting typos, Noah sent an email to someone in Kingsland and told them to print it out with an official

a lot of time after with his finger on the enter key when page and looked at the

by fingers froze as almost crashed in just a few

was not working, and it was almost impossible for and was stunned by the keywords

"Lawrence Adler."