Lily smiled and greeted Alexander. She stretched her hand toward him while he wrapped his hand around her waist.

Olivia could not help but blush when she saw how loving they were. She stared at her deadpan boyfriend and relented that she was unlikely to experience something like this.

"Why don't you tell me how long it's been since you last came home? Would you even consider coming home if I didn't visit you today?"

Alexander could not help but regret setting up the studio for his wife since she happily spent all her time here and forgot everything else.
