

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 859

The incident relating to Lawrence was considerable and had terrible consequences. After all, he was the leading authority in the industry, and no one had ever dared to challenge authority. It was equivalent to a collapse of faith if one heard that the authority had fallen.

Noah was also under a lot of pressure, as he was busy managing the turbulence in the Perfumers' Society. After all, he was the vice president and bore a lot of responsibilities.

Noah packed up and planned to return to Kingsland to sort out the whole situation. That way, he could respond and fight back better. However, Arianna came again right at this moment.

"Why are you here again? I thought I made myself clear last time." He was clear with his stance and did not want to get involved. He simply had no interest in her.

"Yeah, I thought you had figured things out after these two days." Arianna smiled and said meaningfully.

so?" Noah raised his eyebrows and lowered his head to continue tidying up the tidying these if they're just a pile of waste paper? As you can see, Lily is a difficult woman to deal with. I knew it since the first time I fought with her. She might look introverted and weak, troublesome and thought he could suppress precarious due to the recent turbulence in the Perfumers' Society. No one wanted to be the next victim as they must join forces with me if you want

The police and Quality Assurance Department are investigating this matter. What? Can you push all the only be a small part. We will only get charged for careless employment and supervision. It won't be a problem as long as our senior manager confesses to the family is also an influential family at Kingsland. Don't tell me actual intention. He said smilingly, "You wouldn't have come looking for me if it's as simple as you said. As far as I know, the Tanner Corporation is