

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 860

Arianna's words were harsh but true. The Richards family's complexity was beyond ordinary people's imagination. It was especially so since so many descendants and people of several generations lived under the same roof. Everyone framed and tricked each other to compete for the family's properties and businesses.

Noah was not interested in the family business and would never give up what belonged to him. He disregarded his family's opposition and climbed to his current position in the Perfumers' Society as a way out of the sinkhole.

The Richards family looked down on perfumers, but he believed the industry would become prosperous and vibrant as long as it developed well. Still, the industry had yet to develop to its full potential within the country.
