

Spoiled by Mr. Russell Chapter 869

Arianna instinctively moved her phone away from her ear as if hearing Nathaniel blow his nose would dirty her. After waiting for him to finish, she continued, "Could you power through it? I need you to come into the office. I have something important to discuss with you."

"What's the emergency?" Nathaniel sneezed and asked, "I saw the news, aren't you getting married soon? Congratulations! Is this related to your wedding plans? Don't worry. I'll be sure to attend the ceremony."

"Enough of your nonsense!" Arianna frowned and continued in a low tone, "I'm not talking about that- I'm talking about Damian."

"Didn't he just turn himself in?" Everyone heard the news since the Tanner Corporation ensured the public discovered the perfume incident. So, everyone was waiting for the court's decision as this issue had garnered much public interest.

days, yet he suddenly returned and surrendered. Don't you think something's he had an epiphany and decided not to fight with you for the position anymore?"

lose everything we've worked for because we won't be able in the hospital? How would he be able to do this?"

but he was not unconscious. Since he could still get his lawyer to prepare his will, what would stop him from making Damian do his to help him. Although she looked gentle on the outside, Arianna knew what Stephanie to the hospital to ensure Damian would not be able to enter these past two days, she did not know what Damian was up to when he disappeared. She wondered if he had managed to sneak into the hospital to talk to Derrick. So, taking a turn for the worst, so they would need a